

The Master's Touch

From the Pastor's Desk

You know with all your heart and soul that not one of all the good promises the Lord your God gave you has failed. (Joshua 23:14)

Have you ever taken a blue-water challenge in your spiritual life? I heard the term "blue-water challenge" from a pastor in Hawaii named Jordan Seng. The term comes from the navy.

"Brown-water" missions refer to missions that are close to the shore or in lakes or rivers where the water is not deep.

"Blue-water" missions refer to missions in the middle of the ocean where if trouble occurs there is no safe place to swim to.

Pastor Seng's belief is that all too often churches pursue "brown-water" goals.

These are goals that are always "shallow" enough so that if we fail we can save ourselves. Or they are goals that are "safe" enough for us to think we can accomplish them without God's help. In contrast to "brown-water" goals, Pastor Seng pushes his congregation toward "blue-water" goals. These are the goals that a church knows it could never reach on its own; the church must be totally reliant on God. There is no safety net except God.

On September 28th we attempted a blue-water goal. We tried to transform our Harvest Sunday into a community picnic for apartment buildings nearby. I say "attempted" because I write this on September 20th, and I have no idea how things turned out. But I can tell you that in the process leading up to the 28th, every step of the way has been totally dependent on God. Would we get into the apartments? Would we get enough people?

How would the day turn out? We have taken all questions on faith.

I do hope that no matter what happened on the 28th, this community picnic would be a start toward taking more blue-water steps of faith as a church. Not only that – I want to encourage each of you as well. It isn't any fun to be in the middle of the ocean. But God does His best work when we are totally reliant on Him. Whatever you are going through, you serve a "blue-water" God.

Council Corner - Deb Christopher

My name is Deb Christopher, and I am Redeemer's Treasurer. I have never been a council member before, but I hope to be a blessing to Redeemer, as they have blessed me in so many ways through the years. If we've never met, here is a bit about me. I grew up in a suburb of Denver, and although I answered an altar call at a church camp when young, I did not attend church regularly and did not have a true walk with the Lord. I married in 1971, at the age of 18. My husband's job transferred us to Dallas in 1975. Though divorce separated our family in 1985, God was truly watching over us, as both my sons were saved in their early teens, and none of our lives have been the same since! The boys really showed me what a true Christian life should be like, and they led me to the Lord. They brought me to a small church called Carrollton Bible

Church in about 1988. When it dissolved in 1989, we found Redeemer, and it's been my church home ever since. In the '90s, while putting my boys through college, I decided to go to college myself to pursue a degree in accounting. While I never did get my degree, by God's grace, I have worked my way up at The Reny Company where I have been serving as their controller for 16 years. My oldest son, Justin, has been married to Brenda for 13 years and has a ministry on the campus at UT Austin. They share their home with Russell Wilson (their English Mastiff) and Leon (their black cat). My younger son, Shane, has been married to his high school sweetheart, Charity, for 17 years, and is a senior pastor at The Gathering Church in Crandall, Texas. They have two wonderful children, Taylor and Alyssa. I couldn't be more proud of my family. In my spare time, I enjoy swimming, reading, scrapbooking, playing word games on my phone and spending time with my family whenever possible. We like to say we are working UP the chain on getting our family saved - my boys were first, they led me, and then I led my mother to the Lord. We have been truly blessed by God.

We are Thankful for Our Pastors and Staff!

October is officially Pastor Appreciation Month, a time when we at Redeemer like to make an extra effort to let our pastors and staff (Pastor Mark Mohrweis, Associate Pastor Dieula Previlon, Youth Pastor Haley Kroboth, Music Director Cassie Watson, and Office Administrator Lori Vriend) know how much we appreciate them. We are blessed with committed, talented leaders; we don't want to take them for granted!

You might consider sending each of them a personal note, card or email expressing your appreciation. It would be good, too, if we could all commit to praying more often for our pastors and staff in October. You'll also find special envelopes in the Sunday bulletins during October to collect monetary donations to show our thanks. (Make checks out to Redeemer Covenant Church and write "pastor appreciation" on the memo line.)

God has blessed Redeemer beyond measure with Mark, Dieula, Haley, Cassie, and Lori. They joyfully pour themselves into serving the Redeemer family, well beyond what is expected and well beyond what they are paid for.

Please pray about what you can do to show your thanks!

Renovate Project Update

NOTE: This update is as of 9/21. We have one final sub-contractor coming in -- the electrical and metal contractor. Pray that his work will be well done and installed quickly. The next phase of Renovate will be landscaping -- trees along Frankford and landscaping around the building. Pray that we'd find a good irrigation contractor for this phase of Renovate.

Nursery Help Needed!

Join us for a fun time with our little ones!

We need people willing to serve in the nursery and 2-3 year room during the Sunday School hour (9:30-10:30 A.M.).

Trunk or Treat - Friday, October 31

Redeemer's parking lot will be transformed with decorated vehicles, folks in costume, free treats, and lots of "Trick or Treat" alternative fun. Trunk or Treat gives us great opportunities to get to know our neighbors, pray for them, and find out if they have ever heard the Gospel. If you're not comfortable with this, you can sign up to help with a number of activities, such as the photography booth or the fun Cake Walk!

Help is needed to:

- Most importantly: park your car,* decorate the trunk, fill it with treats, and hand out candy!
- Build and supervise the campfire
- Make and serve s'mores and hot chocolate
- Bring baked goodies for the Cake Walk
- Manage the Cake Walk
- Design the backdrop for our "photo booth"
- Take photos
- Register children for the photographer
- Make donations of candy (Look for a red collection bin in the foyer.)

The time commitment for helpers is 6 - 9 P.M. (or whenever the crowds stop coming).

*For those opening up their trunk, please come park your car by 5:30 P.M. so we can all be set up and ready to go at 6:00 P.M.

We need lots of Redeemer people to make this event a success!!!

Watch for volunteer sign-ups in the foyer!

Land Deal - WE NEED YOUR HELP!

November 6 at 7 P.M.

As many of you know, this past July we agreed to a contract to sell the southern portion of our land to a housing development for a significant amount of money ($517,000). Our hope is to use this money to pay down the majority of our mortgage.

Signing the contract was only one step. The next hurdle is planning and zoning and we need your help.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 6:

The case ("McCoy Villas 10-1423") will go before the City of Carrollton's Planning and Zoning Commission.

LOCATION & TIME:

City Hall (1945 E Jackson, Carrollton 75006) at 7 p.m.

Our broker has asked us to send as many Redeemer members and attenders as possible to this meeting. He recommends having at least THIRTY people present to make sure Planning and Zoning knows we are firmly behind this.

- Once you arrive at City Hall, a Redeemer member will direct you to the meeting.
- You do not need to be a Carrollton Resident to participate.

- You do not need to be a Redeemer member to participate. (Invite your friends to support us!)
- Some of you may need to speak in favor of the case. This is as simple as "My name is _____. I support this."
- To help us make sure we have at least 30 people, please sign up on Sunday mornings or e-mail the church office (info@redeemercovenantchurch.org) to make sure we know you can make it.

New This Year: Angel Tree

This year marks the first year Redeemer will be partnering with Angel Tree, a program of Prison Fellowship, to provide a pathway toward the redemption, reconciliation and restoration of children and families who have been impacted by crime.

Angel Tree Christmas works to connect parents in prison with their children through the delivery of Christmas gifts given on the parent's behalf. It is an opportunity to begin a relationship with a local family that has been broken by crime leaving a child without a parent at Christmas.

Those incarcerated parents who wish to participate in the program personally fill out an application for their child and select the general type of gift they would like their child to receive. Those names and gift suggestions will be displayed in the foyer on Sunday, November 30th.

Making a difference in the life of a local family will be as easy as 1-2-3:

1. Church members select a child's name from the Angel Tree in the foyer beginning November 30th.

2. Members contact the child's caregiver and confirm their participation in the program and that the gift selected would be a good gift for the child.
3. Members purchase new toys (costing $20-$25), wrap and deliver presents with a loving message from the incarcerated parent between December 21st-23rd.

You can be a part of this opportunity by:

- Contacting and confirming participation of the families
- Helping create Angel Tree Tags
- Driving to deliver gifts for members who are unable to deliver the gift's themselves

Also, please pray in advance for the families who will be touched by this ministry. Thanks!

If you are led to help make this program a reality at Redeemer, contact Dieula Previlon or Ray Utterback to offer help:

Play Summary:

Kragerville's namesake, Elizabeth Krager (Marilou Castelli), is an unpleasant, reclusive, real estate tycoon who does not have one friend in the world... Unless you ask little Lindsey McCormick (Lourelle Jensen) who lives a block away. To Lindsey, Krager is her BFF... to Krager, this little girl is a menace. It's in the relationships, or lack thereof, Krager has with Lindsey, Molly (Krager's estranged sister played by Cindy Martin), and Krager's eager and nerdy assistant, that we see the life of a woman who is in need of a miracle to become anything other than the tyrant she is. Taking a page or twenty from the classic novel, A CHRISTMAS CAROL, we are introduced to some fun characters and exciting situations in HUMBUG! CHRISTMAS IN KRAGERVILLE.

Help Our Ladies Collect Coupons for Our Troops

Our military families WANT YOU . . .

to help reduce their grocery bills and free up some of their pay for other necessities or niceties!

We will clip and prepare coupons for mailing at our

Ladies Potluck Luncheon

on Monday, October 13 at 11:30 a.m. in Fellowship Hall

Coupons will be donated to: Troopons® — Coupons for Troops

Help us help domestic and overseas military families by sending them food, non-food, baby and pet manufacturer coupons to make their hard-earned dollars go further. Here at home, our newspapers and magazines arrive full of coupons. Overseas, for military families, they do not; however, the stores on overseas military bases accept manufacturer's coupons from the United States! Here at home, many military families cannot afford the magazines and newspapers that provide these coupons.

"It is AMAZING to me how much we can save by using these coupons! It is truly a blessing to us all! Thank you for your dedication to supporting our military and their families overseas! THANK YOU!!!!" – Dawn (Military Spouse and Mommy of Two, currently in Germany)

Shopping abroad is especially tough because their earnings may not go as far as they would at home. Off-base, a military family's dollar is only worth $.66 in England, $.76 in Germany and $.90 in Japan. Every dollar we help them save in their on-base store makes their American dollar worth more for items they must buy off-base! Please pitch in and help us help these amazing men, women and families reduce their grocery bills and free up some of their pay for other necessities or niceties such as:

- To pay other bills
- Send their children to college
- Purchase items they otherwise couldn't afford
- Simply "make ends meet"

You can find coupons in your Sunday newspaper and grocery stores dispensers.
No Internet copies, store or restaurant coupons can be donated.
Clip what you need for your family and donate the rest in the foyer. Thanks!

"I just received your coupons. It helps a lot. Thank you! God bless you and take care!" – Illesheim in Germany

"The popularity of this program has grown and we received numerous comments from individuals on how much these coupons have saved them (up to 70% in some instances)." – Colonel Frank

The Covenant Logo represents the character of our denomination: people united in Christ, people serving people in God's name, and people bringing people to Christ. The design is symbolic of four people facing north, south, east, and west, with each one's arms outstretched, indicating our outreach in mission and service to the world. The four are part of the whole, yet their hands do not touch, symbolizing their unity in freedom and warmth. The arrangement of the four figures results in a cross-like pattern, representative of the center of our faith. The center circle symbolizes the unity and the bond of fellowship which we call "the Covenant."
