

The Master's Touch

From the Pastor's Desk

“What do you think? If a man owns a hundred sheep, and one of them wanders away, will he not leave the ninety-nine on the hills and go to look for the one that wandered off?” (Matthew 18:12)

On the walls outside the sanctuary are four canvas photos of Carrollton. About six months ago, we were working on updating our foyer and I was pondering ideas of different things we could put on the walls. On a whim, I asked a member of Redeemer with a penchant for photography if she had any photos of Carrollton she liked. While she did not have any photos on hand, she did like the idea and took a day to explore Carrollton and take some photos. After sorting through dozens of pictures she took, we decided on four of our favorites and had them printed on canvas. They are now hanging outside the sanctuary.

It is easy to think of a sanctuary as a refuge from the outside world. After all, one definition of the word sanctuary means “a refuge or asylum.” There are times I hope Redeemer’s sanctuary is a refuge from the outside world. It should be a place to put the pressing concerns of a non-stop world on hold and focus on the God of peace. It should be a place where the upside-down values of this world are rejected in favor of the hope of Jesus Christ. But our sanctuary is not solely about escaping this world. Christ has given us the commission to go out into the world to make disciples. And since Christ has not yet returned, there is still work to do.

I hope that when you enter the sanctuary you are overwhelmed with the presence and peace of God. I hope that the sanctuary is a refuge for you. But I also hope that the pictures outside the sanctuary would remind you of a city – Carrollton – that God loves deeply. Enjoy the peace of the sanctuary, but do not neglect the search for those who are lost.

Council Corner - Tasha Moore

Tasha Moore, Evangelism Chair Oklahoma is home for me. I was born and raised in Tulsa, and during my junior year of high school my family moved to Talala, OK. I did not grow up in the church, but had friends who went to church and invited me along. As a child I visited a variety of denominations – Pentecostal, Church of Christ, Baptist, Methodist, and many others. In high school I began to understand that going to church and being a believer in Christ were two very different things. When I was a sophomore in high school I decided to follow Christ and was baptized. For the next few years I attended church on my own and joined a faith-based club at school.

After high school I move to Atlanta where I attended the Georgia Institute of Technology and played softball.

Council Corner

College was a new adventure. During college everything I had once been told about God and Christianity was challenged. Through this, challenging my faith became my own.

After college I moved to Waco to attend Baylor University. Over the next seven years I earned my Master in Social Work and Master of Divinity from George W Truett Theological Seminary. It was also during my graduate work that I met Walker. We married in 2007. Being married with no children did not last long. In 2009 Ava was born, while we were both in grad school. Then in 2011 Adaline joined the family.

In 2012 Walker started a new job with Dallas Area Interfaith and we moved to Carrollton, and I continued my work as a school social worker and with Communities In Schools of North Texas. In the midst of this move, we discovered that I was pregnant with McKenna, who was born in 2013. I love my job and my passion is to help students overcome barriers they are facing in their life so they graduate and have all the potential in the world to be successful with their lives.

Once we settled in, we started looking for a church that was in our community and share some of our passions and ideals. We found Redeemer and attended for about a year before officially joining in 2014. We have been at the church for three years now and have enjoyed getting to know everyone and watching our girls develop in the church home. As a family and members of the church our desire is to be active members of Redeemer, helping to live out the love of Christ to our community.

In June I joined the Church Council as the Evangelism Chair. I've already had great opportunities to work with the team through the Family Dinner at VBS and Hearts and Souls. I'm looking forward to the year ahead as the Evangelism Team looks at how we can reach out into our community more, develop relationships, and live life alongside our neighbors. My hope is that in this next year the Evangelism Team can help lead the church in continuing to look outside of our walls and into the community to serve and love others the way Christ calls us to love.

Nursery Volunteers Needed!

Sundays, 9:30-10:30 A.M.

We desperately need five adults to help in the nursery during the Sunday school hour so that parents can go to class.

Volunteers work once a month on a rotating basis. Contact Julie: JKMuncy \(at\) yahoo.com.

We have a growing ministry to children and their parents. You can be a part of this exciting ministry! The church pays for background checks for volunteers. We want to have more than one adult with every group, so that the work is rewarding and fun!

Small Group Opportunity in October

For the last several weeks, Pastor Mark has been encouraging each one of us to deepen our relational connections with other believers—to essentially grow in our capacity to love each other in the midst of our differences. As a follow-up to these ideas, Michael and Carolann Duffin will be leading a four-week small group study during the Sunday school hour in the month of October.

The book Do You Love Me? Exploring our Relationship with God and Others will be the text for the group. This approachable little book is organized to support your weekly relationship with Christ through scriptural meditations (available in audio format), discussion questions, and experiential activities. The format is designed to refresh your connection with God and others.

If you are interested in participating or have any questions, you can contact Carolann Duffin at carolannrduffin \(at\) gmail.com.

We are Thankful for Our Pastors and Staff!

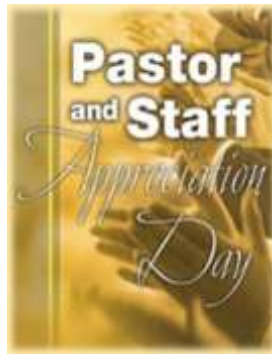

October is officially Pastor Appreciation Month, a time when we at Redeemer like to make an extra effort to let our pastors and staff know how much we appreciate them. We are blessed with committed, talented leaders; we don't want to take them for granted!

They are:

- Pastor Mark Mohrweis
- Associate Pastor Dieula Previlon
- Youth Pastor Haley Kroboth
- Music Director Cassie Watson
- Office Administrator Lori Vriend

You might consider sending each of them a personal note, card or email expressing your appreciation. It would be good, too, if we could all commit to praying more often for our pastors and staff in October. You'll also find special envelopes in the Sunday bulletins during October to collect monetary donations to show our thanks. (Make checks out to Redeemer Covenant Church and write "pastor appreciation" on the memo line.)

God has blessed Redeemer beyond measure with Mark, Dieula, Haley, Cassie, and Lori. They joyfully pour themselves into serving the Redeemer family, well beyond what is expected and well beyond what they are paid for.

Please pray about what you can do to show your thanks!

Angel Tree Ministry is Returning to Redeemer

This year marks the second year Redeemer will be partnering with Angel Tree, a program of Prison Fellowship, to provide a pathway toward the redemption, reconciliation, and restoration of children and families who have been impacted by crime.

Angel Tree Christmas works to connect parents in prison with their children through the delivery of Christmas gifts given on the parent's behalf. It is an opportunity to begin a relationship with a local family that has been broken by crime leaving a child without a parent at Christmas.

Those incarcerated parents who wish to participate in the program personally fill out an application for their child and select the general type of gift they would like their child to receive. Those names and gift suggestions will be displayed in the foyer on Sunday, November 29th.

Making a difference in the life of a local family will be as easy as 1-2-3:

1. Church members select a child's name from the Angel Tree in the foyer beginning November 29th.

2. Members contact the child's caregiver and confirm their participation in the program and that the gift selected would be a good gift for the child.
3. Members purchase new toys (costing $20-$25), wrap and deliver presents with a loving message from the incarcerated parent between December 20th-24th.

You can be a part of this opportunity by:

- Contacting and confirming participation of the families
- Helping create Angel Tree Tags
- Driving to deliver gifts for members who are unable to deliver the gift's themselves

Also, please pray in advance for the families who will be touched by this ministry. Thanks!

If you are led to help make this program a reality at Redeemer, contact Dieula Previlon or Ray Utterback to offer help:
