REDEEMER EVANGELICAL COVENANT CHURCH

The Master's Touch

From the Pastor's Desk

Let us not become weary in doing good, for at the proper time we will reap a harvest if we do not give up.

(Galatians 6:9)

"You get out what you put in." Okay, so the quote is a bit cliché. It is printed on gym banners and work posters, keeping you motivated. This time of year guidance counselors, football coaches, and college deans are all repeating it. And as much as it hurts to join the crowd, there is some wisdom in that proverb. We have a choice with how to spend our time. It seems natural that the things we spend a lot of time on will be the things which give us the most meaning in life, including our spiritual walks.

Last year I met with a person who had visited Redeemer for a couple of months. The person was very frustrated. They felt it was impossible to make friends at Redeemer. I politely nodded my head and gently inquired if the person was interested in coming to Bible Study, or signing up for Trunk or Treat, or even forming a small group. "No time!" was the answer. A few weeks later the person left Redeemer. Somehow they were convinced that friendships could be formed by simply arriving on time each Sunday morning. As most of you know, that simply isn't the case. You get out what you put in. The good news is that Sunday morning is not the only resource we have to form deep friendships!

As the fall rolls around - as school begins and plans get made - I want to encourage you to think about what you would like to "put in" to your faith journey. We are saved by grace, but that same grace calls us to give our best to this life (Galatians 6:9). Inside this newsletter are opportunities to serve and get to know people. These opportunities vary in time commitment, age bracket, and emphasis. You may find yourself 'putting in' at Redeemer. Or it may be some other place where your faith is lived out. No matter where, I want to encourage you - be intentional about how you will grow closer to God this fall. After all, you get out what you put in.

Getting to Know Nick Castle

Born in Sherman, Texas, Nick grew up in a Non-Denominational Church, planted by his father. Growing up surrounded by a family active in ministry, he knew that he was called to ministry but did not know what tools he needed to be effective. God made provision for Nick to attend Dallas Christian College where he was able to witness the church in action. He pursued a Bachelor's of Science in Business Administration and Biblical Studies and in May of 2016, Nick graduated with honors while also receiving the Biblical Scholar Award. He is a current student of Dallas Theological Seminary pursuing a Master of Theology degree.

Nick has a heart for street evangelism, apologetics and student ministry. He believes that there is nothing more exciting than witnessing the love and action of Christ impact and dramatically change the lives of young people. He brings a lot of enthusiasm, dedication and excitement to youth ministry. In his free time, Nick enjoys working out, playing basketball, fishing, and reading Christian theology.

Nick has been married to his lovely wife, Carlisa, since March of 2015. Carlisa recently graduated from Grand Canyon University with an MBA in Human Resources and is currently a Branch Manager for a local commercial bank. They have one son, Nicholas Isaiah Castle, and currently live in Wilmer, TX.

New Sunday Morning Small Group Studies

Small Group: Life with God - a 12 week study
Book cost: $24.95
Leader: Carolann Duffin
First Meeting: Sunday, September 18th (orientation, book distribution) - - Sunday, September 25 will be the first week of study.

Group completion date: Sunday, December 18

Life with God: A Journey of Relationship is a discipleship journey that creates opportunities to grow in connection with Christ and members of His Body.

God wants to be in relationship with us in everything that we do. But most of us struggle to grasp that idea or to understand how to become a person that regularly connects with Christ in our daily activities. Life with God studies are designed to demystify the process of spiritual growth. Through practical Bible teaching, engaging personal projects and safe small group interaction, participants learn to recognize and abide with God in their real life.

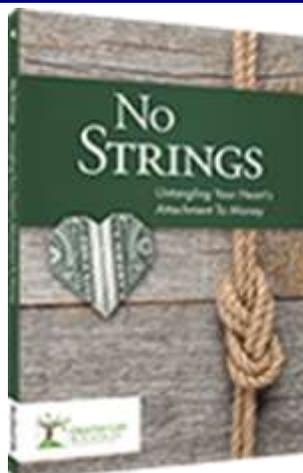

This fall, Carolann Duffin, will be offering the first study in the Life with God series, The Genesis of Relationship. This 12 week experience focuses on the first four chapters of the book of Genesis, exploring how God created us for relationship and how the Fall of humanity affects our ability to live in the fullness of who we were meant to be. You can read more about this study at <http://graftedlife.org/lwg/>.

The orientation meeting will be in the Sanctuary Annex on Sunday, September 18th at 9:30 A.M. We will handout books and do introductions.

You can contact Carolann at carolannrduffin \(at\) gmail.com with any questions.

Small Group: No Strings - a 12 week study

Book Cost: $19.95

Leaders: Curt and Debbie Swindoll

First Meeting: Sunday, September 18th (orientation, book distribution) - - Sunday, October 2 will be the first week of study.

Group completion date: Sunday, December 18

No Strings is a study for Christians seeking true financial freedom in their lives, no matter the size of their bank accounts.

Many of us have personal issues with money, ones that can't be fixed by merely learning new ways to control our behaviors. We can seek to change our actions by setting up financial structures that put boundaries around the way that we spend, save and give. But as good as these external options are, unless we are willing to look internally at the way our resources affect our emotions, at what motivates our spending decisions, and at the underlying meaning that we attach to the assets that we possess or desire, then we have not explored all that Jesus wants us to evaluate.

No Strings is not about the mechanics of budgeting, saving, or getting out of debt. It looks instead at what Scripture teaches about possessions, finances and our hearts. The exercises and reflections invite honest and real conversations with yourself and God about what really matters to you regarding money. You can read more about this study at <http://graftedlife.org/ns/>.

The orientation meeting will be in Fellowship Hall B on Sunday, September 18th at 9:30 A.M. We will handout books and do introductions. You can contact Debbie at swindolls \(at\) gmail.com with any questions.

I AM NOT A ROBOT—Midsouth Camp 2016

Several Redeemer members and friends had a fantastic week at Midsouth Covenant Camp in July! Here are a few highlights:

We had a record high number of campers - 118!

Campers, counselors and CILTs alike had fun while learning and growing closer to God.

Our week started by learning the difference between robots and humans. Robots do what others tell them, while humans make choices. One of these choices we focused on was choosing to be a “God-Pleaser.” We also talked about being “transformers” as we turn over control of our lives to God. Many campers dedicated their lives to Christ for the first time while several others re-dedicated their lives. Everyone agrees, “I am not a robot!”

We had some incredible new activities at camp this year. In the chapel we had “Cirque de Munk” where board games, video games, and movies were enjoyed. Each day we had a different water activity on the field including shaving cream slip n’ slide, obstacle courses, kiddie pool ice baths, a sno-cone truck, and giant inflatable water slides! One of the highlights of the week was the Robot fashion show and “Battle of the Bots.” Campers cheered on counselors as they attempted to complete an obstacle course in a robot costume. The evening ended by watching all the counselors battle it out!

Overall, it was an incredible week spent with our Midsouth Covenant family! We would love to have you join us next year!!

Save the date.... July 30- August 5, 2017!

“Do not love this world nor the things it offers you, for when you love the world, you do not have the love of the Father in you. The world offers only a craving for physical pleasure, a craving for everything we see, and pride in our achievements and possessions. These are not from the Father, but are from the world. This world is fading away, along with everything that people crave. But anyone who does what pleases God will live forever.”

- 1 John 2:15-17
