

The Master's Touch

From the Pastor's Desk

A good person leaves an inheritance for their children's children, but a sinner's wealth is stored up for the righteous.
Proverbs 13:22

The day is finally here. After some 25 years of paying the monthly mortgage bill, Redeemer will be completely debt free this month. What was a $600,000 mortgage balance as recent as 2014 is now off our books today. We are certainly excited around here. And, if you are reading this before December 4th, it's not too late to join us for our mortgage burning ceremony during the Advent Dinner.

What does the future hold? When thinking about the future, I believe it is important to both celebrate and keep perspective. With that in mind, I want to share with you what I believe WILL happen one year from now (December, 2017) and what MAY happen 10 years from now (December 2026).

I am confident enough in human nature to predict that in December 2017 our church WILL be arguing about money, or lack thereof. This is not because of anything in Redeemer's budget or history. It is simply because human nature is such that there is NEVER enough money, even with a mortgage paid off. The truth is, the only way for our money worries to go away – either in our personal lives or at Redeemer – is not to have more money, but to make sure that Jesus Christ is always more important than the amount of money we hold.

But I am optimistic about another date too. That date is December 2026: 10 years from now. I believe by listening to the Holy Spirit and by obeying God, we can use what money would have gone to the mortgage for the ministries He has called us to. Whether that is an up-to-date facility, a generous heart for missions, or an investment in the community, we can leave a legacy for the next generation. The gift of paying off the mortgage wasn't because we believed it would solve all financial woes. Rather, the gift of the mortgage being gone is like Proverbs 13 says – to make sure the next generation will be blessed.

Council Corner—Warren Leonhardi

I grew up in Birmingham, Alabama and moved to Lewisville when I was 15. I graduated from Lewisville High School and went to Northlake Community College for a couple of years. After that I transferred to UTA and studied architecture, although I would ultimately get my degree in business. I own the Chick-fil-A in The Colony. I have for 10 years now (which is a bit ironic because when I was looking for my first job at 15 I said I would never work fast food). I'm a pretty laid back person with a passion for cars, design, and movies.

I met my wife Sarah in high school (first girlfriend... aww). We've been married for over 13 years now – no kids, but we've got a basset named Lexi. We both went to First Baptist Church in Lewisville (I grew up in a Baptist church) during our high school/college years, even teaching 7th and 8th graders once we got married. After many years there, we felt led to Irving Bible Church. Through IBC, we got heavily involved in a Haitian ministry called Hosean International Ministries (HIM). We took many mission trips to Haiti, Sarah served as the stateside admin, and I served on the Board. Our involvement with HIM is what sparked our relationship with the Previlons. Sarah and I first started visiting Redeemer about 2 years ago. We wanted to find a smaller church and Frez (BB) and Dieula had a lot of wonderful things to say about Redeemer. The hospitality of the congregation and the preaching really impressed us and we became members at the beginning of 2016. Since then I've been able to get engaged in the church in several ways. I lead a men's small group that meets on Wednesday mornings. Having a group of guys to hold me accountable and grow with is something I've always needed in my walk. More recently, I've joined the Facilities Committee at Redeemer. Since I enjoy design, I'm excited to be part of the team thinking through what the facilities could be like in the future. The biggest role I've gotten into at Redeemer, however, is Missions Chair on the Council. I stepped into the role this summer, and I've spent the last several months learning the ins-and-outs of Redeemer missions and talking about future direction. The vision for the missions department is: To demonstrate God's love for others and share the gospel by serving and walking alongside our neighbors, our nation, and our world. Through missions, we want to focus on developing, sending, and supporting servant leaders, being ambassadors of social justice and reconciliation, and caring for the sick and the poor. I'm excited about the future of Redeemer missions and look forward to bringing this vision to life.

The Advent Wreath Tradition

The season of Advent takes place during the four Sundays prior to Christmas. Advent means "arrival of a notable person or event" and we use the season of Advent to prepare ourselves for Christ's birth. We have many traditions and many activities to help us do that: singing Christmas carols, decorating the church, joyful activities together like the Advent Dinner, a Christmas play, ornament exchange, and so on. Our prayer is that we do not get wrapped up in the activities and lose the spiritual importance of the season. To help us focus our hearts, each worship service we will light a new candle in the Advent Wreath, symbolizing hope, peace, joy, and love. Then on December 25th (or at our Christmas Eve service), we light the Christ Candle symbolizing the birth of Christ, the Light of the World and the Prince of Peace. We will also have a series of Advent prayers on the back of the Sunday bulletins to help us prepare our hearts for the coming of our King!

Why the purple and pink candles? Early in the history of the church, Lent was set aside as a season of fasting and prayer to remember the crucifixion of Jesus. The traditional color of Lenten banners was a deep purple, signifying royalty, repentance, and suffering. Churches lit seven candles, one for each week of the solemn season. To signify the promise of hope and joy of Christ's coming resurrection, on the third Sunday of Lent, the church was encouraged not to fast, but to feast, and the priests wore pink vestments as a reminder of the coming joy. When the season of Advent was instituted, the church viewed it as a mini-Lent, a time for reflection and repentance (thus the purple). So the first four candles of Lent were adopted and the third candle of Advent was pink in honor of the Lenten tradition of coming joy. Each candle was named in anticipation for all that Christ's coming would bring: hope, peace, joy, and love.

Angel Tree Outreach

December 4 - December 23

What is Angel Tree?

It is a program of Prison Fellowship to provide a pathway toward redemption, reconciliation, and restoration of children and families affected by crime. Angel Tree

*"I needed clothes and you clothed me,
I was sick
and you looked after me,
I was in prison
and you came to visit me."
Matthew 25:36*

Christmas works to connect parents in prison with their children through the delivery of Christmas gifts given on the parent's behalf. It is an opportunity to begin a relationship with a local family that has been broken by crime, leaving a child without a parent at Christmas.

How does it work?

Incarcerated parents who wish to participate in the program personally fill out an application for their child and select the general type of gift they would like their child to receive. Those names and gift suggestions are forwarded to Redeemer and are hung on the Angel Tree that will be in the lobby on Sunday, December 4.

Making a difference in the life of a local family will be as easy as 1-2-3:

1. Church members select a child's name from the Angel Tree in Redeemer's lobby.
2. Members will then contact the child's caregiver and confirm their participation in the program and that the gift selected would be a good gift for the child.

3. Members purchase new toys (costing $20-$25), wrap, and deliver presents with a loving message from the incarcerated parent between December 19-24.

How can I be involved, besides buying a gift?

We would like to have volunteers to help with:

- Contacting and confirming participation of the families
- Helping create Angel Tree Tags
- Driving to deliver gifts for members who are unable to deliver the gift's themselves
- Registration Table: Help match church members with an angel
- Pray for the families who will be touched by this ministry.

How can I learn more?

Direct questions to Pastor Dieula at DeiulaPrevilon@gmail.com.

Learn more about Prison Fellowship on the web at: www.prisonfellowship.org.

Continue to remember those in prison as if you were together with them in prison, and those who are mistreated as if you yourselves were suffering.
