

The Master's Touch

From the Pastor's Desk

Do not seek revenge or bear a grudge against anyone among your people, but love your neighbor as yourself. I am the Lord. (Leviticus 19:18)

The Christian calendar winds down the year a bit earlier than our normal calendar. Since the season of Advent (which starts in late November) begins a new church year, we will find ourselves wrapping up our year-long theme about a month before 2016 actually ends. That means we will want to make the most of the next few weeks. For the messages on Sunday, we will be going through the book of James with an emphasis on compassion and outreach.

This entire year I have had a theme for Redeemer - "It's not you, it's me." I want to see us become a church where no one is on their own, but everyone takes ownership of their faith. In something of a paradox, the final piece of "owning" our faith is letting our faith lead us into taking care of our neighbor. Taking responsibility for myself (in faith) also means taking responsibility for the care and compassion for others. It is interesting to me that the Leviticus command (which Jesus used for the great commandment) said "love your neighbor as yourself". There seems to be something holistic about a compassion for others that is rooted in healthy awareness of God's love for us. It's almost as if we cannot fully love ourselves if we do not love our neighbor and vice-versa.

As I write this (mid-September), NFL players are kneeling during the national anthem, police officers are being both blamed and defending themselves, the black community is reeling and the media is stoking as many fires as it possibly can (when they aren't busy telling us about the "Brangelina" split). It is in this context that the work of peacemaking, reconciliation, and love of neighbor must take place. Who will take ownership to be a peacemaker in this context? To be a truth teller? To be a reconciler? That's the secret – you cannot take ownership of these issues without simultaneously caring for your neighbor. It's not you, it's me. But as I look at 'me' I realize I am called to care for 'you'. And I need you to care for me.

Council Corner - Mary Anne Jensen

I was born in a small village in the Southern Philippines. I was raised Catholic until my family decided to become a part of an Evangelical Church in 1988. Since then my faith in the Lord Jesus Christ blossomed, becoming active in all church activities, serving as youth leader, and eventually becoming a Sunday School teacher at a very young age. I have been on several different missions serving indigenous people and communities in the Philippines. I am married to Jens Jensen and homeschooling our daughter Lourelle Jensen. I have a Bachelor's degree in Secondary Education majoring in Health, and a Master's Degree in Educational Supervision and Administration from the University of Southeastern Philippines.

We found Redeemer through our church-hopping journey and have been regular attendees for the past 7 years. Just last year we pledged as members of RECC.

Redeemer, with its small church charm, is a nurturing church for a young family like ours where we find spiritual growth, diversity, prayer support, and a safe and healthy place for our daughter to grow up.

As a Discipleship Chair it is my goal to let Christ be known to every child that walks in our building by letting them experience the warmth, genuine care, and support of the church. It is my hope that we engage these children to walk side by side with our community and develop the interest of sharing the light of Jesus Christ with the whole world. It is also my desire to encourage and support the children's ministry workers, pray for them, and exhort them to teach the bible faithfully and truthfully.

I believe that these goals will not be achieved without the endless support and hard-work of our volunteers – the people that put in countless hours, resources, and their joy to make each activity happen. So I will take this opportunity to thank all of you for your continuous support in the ministry.

We are Thankful for Our Pastors and Staff!

October is officially Pastor Appreciation Month, a time when we at Redeemer like to make an extra effort to let our pastors and staff know how much we appreciate them. We are blessed with committed, talented leaders; we don't want to take them for granted!

They are:

- Pastor Mark Mohrweis
- Associate Pastor Dieula Previlon
- Youth Pastor Nick Castle
- Music Director Cassie Watson
- Office Administrator Lori Vriend

You might consider sending each of them a personal note, card or email expressing your appreciation. It would be good, too, if we could all commit to praying more often for our pastors and staff in October. You'll also find special envelopes in the Sunday bulletins during October to collect monetary donations to show our thanks. (Make checks out to Redeemer Covenant Church and write "pastor appreciation" on the memo line.) God has blessed Redeemer beyond measure with Mark, Dieula, Nick, Cassie, and Lori. They joyfully pour themselves into serving the Redeemer family, well beyond what is expected and well beyond what they are paid for.

Please pray about what you can do to show your thanks!

Volunteers Needed!

If you've been keeping up with Wednesday Night activities, it's becoming one of the more involved nights at Redeemer. Our ESL classes are full, we are at that point where we can't take another student, we don't even have enough chairs to seat more. Our Kid's Connect program is full, as well. One ESL student alone had 4 children, one of which was a 2 year old. One other mom was willing to hold her baby on her lap through the hour and half long class so that she could learn to speak English. Though our sign says K-5, we would hate to turn them away because one of their children are under aged.

So we're having some good problems on Wednesday nights and we need a few more volunteers to help with the children and possibly ESL. I would like to have an ESL greeter for the first 30 minutes of class to help parents with their children and an extra volunteer or two with the children each night. We have a good rotation going around right now but a third person on the rotation would be a great help. Someone to sit with the little ones would be great, too. If you would like to help out, even one night a month, please contact me.

Thank you,
Pastor Dieula Dieula@RedeemerECC.org

Jeff Kemp's personal story includes a persevering journey in the face of long odds during an eleven-year career in the NFL. Jeff and his father, former vice-presidential candidate and H.U.D. Secretary Jack Kemp, were the first of only five father-son NFL quarterback combos. Jeff's free agent story, ups and downs, and history facing blitzes both on and off the field provide him with a great breadth of experience from which to draw insights and illustrations and to keep audiences both riveted and engaged.

Jeff founded and led Stronger Families in the Pacific Northwest from 1993 to 2010. Stronger Families united communities around strengthening marriages and today assists military and high-stress couples in protecting their marriages.

Working to Fulfill Redeemer's Vision

Vision: A Multi-Ethnic Community Committed to Walking Alongside. . .

4th Category: Encouraging Ministry Through Practical Support
Ministries of: Admin, Finance, and Policies

A Letter from Redeemer's Financial Secretary

Since the 2016 Annual Meeting, there have been some questions pertaining to 'giving' and how/when certain giving can be designated to specific ministries. It has been a long process to bring Redeemer Covenant Church into compliance with federal tax laws and establish a business-as-usual process that any lay-person from the church can step into as Financial Secretary. So, I thought I would take a few minutes to explain the contribution accounts and giving options.

First, some definitions:

1. Designated Accounts are accounts that disburse the exact amount that has been received/designated by contributions. Therefore these accounts essentially are 'cleared' at year-end as the amount spent is the amount received. There are currently 5 designated accounts: (1) Hearts & Soles, (2) Penny Manna, (3) Pastor Appreciation, (4) Youth Missions, and (5) Mortgage Debt Reduction.
2. Account Funds are annually budgeted 'buckets' wherein the money spent is projected to be within the money budgeted. There are 4 funds that Redeemer members can designate contributions to be credited: (1) General, (2) Crisis Relief/Benevolence, (3) Missions, and (4) Facilities.

These different Designated Accounts and Account Funds were established based on giving patterns between 2010 and 2014. Redeemer can add/remove these Designated Accounts and/or Account Funds when deemed necessary to the body of the Congregation. For example, if there is a strong desire amongst the Congregation to allow funds to be designated directly to Discipleship, that recommendation can be presented to the Counsel who will then decide whether to add that specific Account Fund.

To ensure members have every opportunity to give as the Spirit moves them, Redeemer also has procedures in place to accept items of monetary value (i.e. sound equipment, supplies, etc.). With evidence of fair market value, the Financial Secretary can provide 'Letters of Monetary Value Contributions' to the donating member.

Overall, all these changes were meant to ensure the funds that were 'designated' were being utilized for those specific areas. Prior to these changes, there were 121 designated accounts wherein the funds could not be utilized anywhere and for no other purpose, of which 85% were less than $10. This required 121 sub-accounts to be monitored and maintained by the Financial Secretary and Treasurer.

I hope this overview has provided further insight as to the financial accountability and bookkeeping here at Redeemer. Thank you again for your continued support.

What do volunteers say about Sack Summer Hunger? "Delivering so close to home let us see the need literally down the street."

What do participating families say? "We were able to pay bills and not worry if we had enough for groceries."
