REDEEMER EVANGELICAL COVENANT CHURCH

The Master's Touch

From the Pastor's Desk

So after they had fasted and prayed, they placed their hands on them and sent them off. (Acts 13:3)

I always come back to Antioch. In the book of Acts, we hear about a lot of churches: Corinth, Ephesus, Thessalonica, Rome, and of course, the one that started it all, Jerusalem. I love reading about these churches. I love that each church has its own ethos. I love that God uses each church differently for His purposes. I have learned different spiritual lessons from each church. But I always come back to Antioch.

Antioch was the church that broke down barriers by first welcoming the Greeks to their membership rosters (Acts 11:20). Antioch was the church that opened its arms to Saul – then known only as a murderer who had been blinded by God (11:26). Antioch was the church that let the Spirit lead them by listening to prophets and responding in generosity (11:27-29). Antioch was the church that did not let the fact that it was the “little brother” (when compared to Jerusalem) hold it back from doing bold things for the Lord.

But there is one unsettling aspect about Antioch. I say unsettling because even though it is a good aspect of Antioch, it is a difficult thing to live out. Antioch is a sending church. It is known to us today primarily because of one prayer meeting in which people were called to leave, instead of staying at the church. The impact Antioch has had on the faith is through the members who left. I've always known about this side of Antioch. But this year it became personal as we at Redeemer have had to live it out for ourselves.

Deep down I would like to have 2017 back. 2017 we were dreaming big dreams with unexpected financial blessings. Then 2018 came. 2018 was the year that several in our congregation left us. They loved us. They hated to leave. But the same Spirit which set apart Saul and Barnabas has sent them to different parts of the country for the next phase of life. The next person we send? Pastor Nick and his family as they seek to plant a church.

You will read more details about Nick's transition and the future of our youth ministry in this newsletter. I do believe God has a plan and a future for our church and our youth group. But for now I urge you to pray about Antioch. Let's try to emulate as a church the things they did well: crossing racial and ethnic boundaries, welcoming the outcast, letting the Holy Spirit have the last word. And when years like 2018 come, let's continue to be like Antioch: by letting people faithfully depart for the greater good of the Kingdom, even if it hurts us.

Youth Pastor Search

As many of you heard in October, we received some bittersweet news from our youth pastor Nick. Pastor Nick has been accepted into a church planting internship and will be finishing his time at Redeemer in December. While we will miss Nick, we are excited that God will use him to plant a new church and spread the Gospel.

Nick has done tremendous work and helped bring new life into our youth group. Our church council wants to see that work continued and voted unanimously to search immediately for a new youth pastor to take on the role when Nick has finished.

A search committee has been formed. It consists of:

- Joy Persson
- Matthew Castañeda
- Betsy Flynn
- Tasha Moore

By the time you read this article, they will be starting interviews with prospective candidates. Our hope is to have a candidate to present to the council and congregation by December.

Please take time this month to pray:

- Pray for Pastor Nick and Carlisa as this new stage of their life begins.
- Pray for the search committee as they discern God's will.
- Pray for our youth group as they deal with a difficult loss (in Nick).
- Pray also for the person God has for Redeemer next.
- Pray that God would prepare us and this person for wonderful ministry here at Redeemer.

HARVEST Community Garden

www.HarvestCommunityGarden.org

Harvest Community Garden (HCG) is a nonprofit organization that enables people from the community to come together to grow organic produce and donate half of the produce to a local food bank.

The garden is a member of *Community Gardens of Carrollton** and is open to anyone. It is located on the south side of Redeemer Covenant Church's property.

PHASE 1: Redeemer ECC built 12 raised beds (20' x 4'), a shed, and a fence and set up a Board to oversee the running of the garden. Members of the community now adopt a whole or a half plot for a year. The garden also has an asparagus bed, blackberries, and a xeriscape garden which volunteers help care for.

PHASE 2: The plan has always been to build another 12 beds and to expand the fence to surround a bigger garden. Last year Redeemer designated funds to help make that happen. In the spring of this year grading was done to prepare the area for the expansion, and this month we plan to begin laying the irrigation, building the beds, etc.

Help Needed!

Over the next several weeks we will need help with:

- Installing irrigation
- Building raised beds
- Collecting cardboard and laying it down in the beds and walkways
- Filling beds with dirt
- Covering walkways with mulch
- Building a fence

Join us on Saturday mornings at 8:00 a.m. to help!

Sankofa is a word from the Akan tribe in Ghana. It means San (to return), ko (to go) fa (to fetch, seek, and take). The bird with its head turned backwards taking an egg off its back embodies Sankofa's meaning. Sankofa attests that we must look backwards (into our history), before we can faithfully move forward together, in the present and future. The Sankofa experience does just this, by exploring historic sites of the Civil Rights Movement, connecting the freedom struggle of the past, to our present realities.

Sankofa is an invitation to understand race as a critical component of our Christian discipleship. It is an interactive, spiritual formation, pilgrimage that equips Christians to pursue racial righteousness inside and outside the church. This relational journey traces the history of race in the U.S., and tangibly equips believers to begin living into the church's mission to be ambassadors of reconciliation in a divided world.
