REDEEMER EVANGELICAL COVENANT CHURCH

The Master's Touch

From the Pastor's Desk

And let us run with perseverance the race marked out for us, fixing our eyes on Jesus, the pioneer and perfecter of faith.
(Hebrews 12:1-2)

In March and April of 1983, an upstart college basketball team shocked the world and captivated fans by winning the NCAA tournament. North Carolina State, led by coach Jimmy Valvano made a surprising run through their bracket, finishing with an upset win over Houston for the national title. During the run, when asked about the team's mentality, Coach Valvano described their mindset as "Survive and Advance." The phrase was apt. It would come to symbolize the team's success and eventually became the title of an ESPN documentary about the team.

I love the unexpected candor of the phrase "survive and advance." Our usual sports clichés hint at excellence: Give it 110%, Leave it all on the field, or You've got to want it more. "Survive and advance" seems to set the bar low. Who wants to merely survive when we can pursue renown? When we talk about sports legacy, we debate "Who is the GOAT?" (Greatest Of All Time). We aren't thinking about who merely "survived." But Valvano and the '83 Wolfpack understood intuitively that sometimes just surviving is a way toward victory.

Without becoming too pessimistic, sometimes I think survival is a fitting goal for a Christian. Obviously, I hope all of us thrive in our lives and in our faith. But "survive" is an important reminder that none of us is - or ever will be - perfect. It is a reminder that all of us can keep moving forward, however rocky the road has been so far. It doesn't matter whether we were faultless or flawed. It doesn't matter whether we made mistakes. We have made it this far.

Every step forward is a step toward victory.

As we conclude this summer's message series through the book of Hebrews, I think "survive and advance" is one way to summarize what Hebrews is saying. Life isn't always easy and sometimes we make life even harder on ourselves. It can be tempting to beat ourselves up for the mistakes we have made. But we haven't given up and God hasn't given up on us. Give yourself grace, don't turn back, and keep pursuing the victory He has for you.

Council Corner - Megan Edge

Hi everyone, I am Megan Edge, and I am the new Evangelism Chair!

I have been attending Redeemer since I was 5 years old, when our new family friends, the Perssons, asked if we would like to try out their church. I have been a friend of Jesus since I was about five years old, and when I was seven I was baptized here at Redeemer by then Associate Pastor Christine Franzon. While I have had ups and downs in seasons with my walk with Christ, I have remained passionate in my commitment to following His word, and doing what He has called me to do. Over time, my relationship with God has been influenced and improved by my friendships and mentors here at the church and through the ministry of the MidSouth at Frontier Camp. The missionaries that we support have also meant a great deal to me over the years, it is so inspiring the way they live their lives fully for the Lord.

I am a licensed social worker, and I currently work for an organization that walks alongside kids who are in the foster care system. I love my work, and while it is challenging at times, it is so rewarding to be making a difference in the lives of some of the most vulnerable members of our community. I recently got married, and I am so lucky to have found a partner in Kyle, who is as dedicated to walking this walk and finding ways to live out our faith with me.

The thing I love about being able to serve as the Evangelism Chair, is that it allows me to work with the church to see the needs our community and to match services that we can provide and outreach we can do as a church. I love many of the ministries we are already doing, such as ESL and the Harvest Garden, and I am so excited to dream big to find projects and ways to plug our church into what the community already has going on. For me, this role allows me to serve in a way that I love—walking with people who need it. The mission and vision of our church is to walk alongside, and serving in this role is my opportunity to help lead us to some opportunities to live that out.

What Happened to Hearts & Soles and Sack Summer Hunger?

Hearts & Soles

For many years Redeemer has supported the Hearts & Soles Program coordinated through Metrocrest Services. Through this program low-income students in the Carrollton area were able to receive a new pair of shoes before returning to school. Unfortunately, Payless Shoe Stores across the US have closed their doors. So this year, Metrocrest Services is partnering with a new organization to provide shoes to students at their back to school fair on Friday, August 16th. We will also be partnering to help stuff backpacks to give to kids on Monday August 5th from 6-8 p.m. See signup sheets in the Lobby for information about times, or e-mail Megan at Megan.Edge26 \(at\) gmail.com.

Sack Summer Hunger

Redeemer has volunteered in various ways the past three years to help with the Sack Summer Hunger Program. Although it has been a wonderful experience, coordinating a group was not always the easiest option. We would love to see Redeemer members continue to volunteer and help with the program, but it would be better for members to sign up directly with Metrocrest Services for a volunteer slot.

Evangelical Covenant Church (ECC) Update

Gather 2019, The Covenant Annual Meeting was held on June 27-29, 2019 in Omaha, Nebraska. This year a record number of delegates gathered to decide weighty matters, ordain ministers, and install leaders. Redeemer's delegate was Lori Vriend. Julie Persson was there as a member of the Covenant Executive Board, and Ron Persson was there as a member of the Midsouth Conference Board. Below are a few highlights of the meeting. Lori has a notebook of all the reports, if you want more details. Also, many details are online at covchurch.org/news and gather.covchurch.org.

Membership in the Mission

- 12 churches were received into ECC membership.
- 7 churches were voluntarily removed from the membership roster: 6 had closed and 1 withdrew its membership.
- After much debate, 1 church, First Covenant Church of Minneapolis, was involuntarily dismissed from the roster of Covenant churches by a vote in executive session that surpassed the required two-thirds majority needed. Delegates debated the matter in two, 30-minute sessions after presentations by both First Covenant Church of Minneapolis and the Covenant Executive Board, which found the church to be out of harmony with the ECC on human sexuality and pastoral credentialing. After the vote, delegates responded with a prayer of lament: gather.covchurch.org/wp-content/uploads/2019/06/Gather19-Prayer-of-Lament.pdf.
- Delegates also voted to remove the credentials of Steven Armfield and Daniel Collison after extended debate in executive session.

State of the Mission

- The report of the president and video archives of all proceedings will be located at gather.covchurch.org.
- See news releases and stories covering the Gather'19 at covchurch.org/news and at covenantcompanion.com.
- Download the 2018-19 Mission and Ministry Report at gather.covchurch.org/2019agenda and see agenda item 28, the "Mission and Ministry Leadership Report."
- 20 new church planters were honored and 5 churches intend to plant new churches in the ECC.
- The Board of Pensions brought an amended pension plan, which the delegates overwhelmingly approved.
- The Covenant Companion received a total of 20 awards for its work in 2018 at the Evangelical Press Association and Associated Church Press conferences, including five first place honors.

Servant Leadership in the Mission

- 8 missionaries were commissioned for service.
- 41 people were ordained to Word and Sacrament; 5 to Word and Service; 1 was commissioned; and 4 had their transfer of ordination finalized.
- Many people were elected and installed to board and other leadership positions.

Honoring Faithful Service in the Mission

- Many retiring ministry leaders were recognized.
- A Resolution of Sympathy was adopted praising God for the lives and ministries of Covenanters who died.

Funding the Mission

- The ECC ended the 2018 fiscal year with an operating budget surplus of approximately $13,000.
- The Covenant Annual Meeting approved a 2020 Mission and Ministry budget of $28.25 million.
- National Covenant Properties is funding loans to Covenant churches, camps, retirement facilities and affiliated organizations totaling $300 million.
- Covenant Trust Company (CTC) managed about 3,400 accounts representing $1 billion. In addition, CTC distributed in excess of $9 million to ECC ministries.
- Bethany Benefit Service held 2019 medical rate increases to 3 percent, much lower than rate increases in the broader healthcare environment.

Living Faithfully in the Mission

- North Park University, North Park Theological Seminary, Paul Carlson Partnership, Covenant Ministries of Benevolence, National Covenant Properties, Covenant Trust Company, and Centro Hispano de Estudios Teológicos provided updates on their institutions, including new programs and initiatives.
